FALLEN OAK GOLF CLUB, BILOXI

Golf travelers can't seem to stay away from the Magnolia State, coming back year after year rather than looking for a new destination. Maybe it's the desire to play both traditional course layouts and signature celebrity golf designs. Maybe it's the delicious Southern cuisine served with genuine hospitality. Maybe it's the thriving nightlife and the opportunity to experience the Birthplace of America's Music. Mississippi truly has it all.

With year-round golfing weather, the golf courses and resorts in Mississippi can accommodate the needs and budgets of all types of golf groups. Mississippi offers something for the casual and low-handicap golfer alike. The state hosts two major professional golf tournaments each year. They are the Champions Tour's Rapiscan Systems Classic, played on Beau Rivage Casino Resort's Fallen Oak course near Biloxi in the spring, and the PGA TOUR's Sanderson Farms Championship at the Country Club of Jackson each fall. Women amateur golfers tested their skills at the 2019 U.S. Women's Amateur Championship held at Old Waverly in West Point. This was the third major USGA event held at the east Mississippi course, starting with the 1999 U.S. Women's Open, followed by the 2009 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur Championship.

Fun times off the course are also a specialty in Mississippi. Casino gaming resorts provide high-energy entertainment and Sportsbook; music trails boast of the state's musical heritage; and inland rivers and the Gulf of Mexico provide boating, fishing and other watersports opportunities. A wide variety of restaurants also serve up unique experiences.

Come stay, play, taste and enjoy all of Mississippi. Discover for yourself why golfers choose Mississippi when considering their next great adventure.

A NOTE ABOUT THE REGIONS...

Taking advantage of the natural lay of the land, there are five distinct regions in the state. The Delta Region is the birthplace of the blues and offers rich expanses of open flatlands. The Hills Region lives up to its name, with gently rolling landscapes and stunning scenery. In the Capital/River Region, waterways wind through a richly historic part of the state. The Pines Region, located in the eastern part of the state, is blanketed with quiet forests, providing a stunning backdrop for all golfers. The sparkling waters of the Gulf of Mexico and beautiful beaches are just some of the highlights of the Coastal Region. Each region is color coded within the pages of this guide for ease of use.

A NOTE ABOUT THE LISTINGS...

All public, semi-private, military, resort and private golf courses are listed within their respective regions. Lodging and golf package listings are from participating properties. These are just a small sampling of all the great golf vacations in Mississippi. Published rates and packages are subject to change and may vary, and restrictions may apply. Call each property for the most current information. The "Golfers' Picks" sections also provide a small sample of dining, entertainment and non-golfing options by region.

Join the thousands of golfers who accept the challenges top designers have created on Mississippi golf courses. Take advantage of affordable packages and superb accommodations. Enjoy the spectacular scenery, and be sure to live the local life after the 18th hole each day.

As the Birthplace of America's Music, Mississippi's musical landscape is much like the golf scene. Exciting and varied, it reflects regional influences. Mississippi has been instrumental in the birth, growth and popularity of musical genres such as blues, country and, of course, rock 'n' roll, thanks to its most famous musical son, Elvis Presley. These musical styles are truly Mississippi made and reflected in the Mississippi Blues Trail and Country Music Trail. The song lyrics tell our story, while the beats, rhythms and melodies reflect our diverse heritage.

Another exciting trail springing forth is the Mississippi Writers Trail. The first marker was unveiled September 2018 at Eudora Welty's house and garden in Jackson. Similar to the music trails, the Writers Trail will be a compilation of marked locales honoring Mississippi's rich literary history. Acclaimed and influential writers from the state also include William Faulkner, Jesmyn Ward, John Grisham, Richard Ford and Tennessee Williams.

As one of the largest casino destinations in the country, Mississippi offers gaming opportunities throughout the state. Additionally, sports betting was launched in Mississippi in 2018, making it one of the only states in the South to offer Sportbook. Celebrity entertainers, gourmet dining, luxury accommodations, spas and many more amenities turn Mississippi's gaming resorts into memorable, fun-filled vacations, conventions and reunions. With easy access to golf courses, waterways and shopping, you can check into a single casino resort and enjoy a diverse and fun-filled getaway.

Beyond the music and entertainment in

GROUND ZERO BLUES CLUB, CLARKSDALE

Mississippi, there's unbeatable dining. The state's cuisine defies categorization. In some cases, it defies imagination. From catfish to comeback sauce, from tamales to traditional Southern sweets, from shrimp to slugburgers to sweet potatoes, Mississippi's culinary heritage has something to please every palate. The Magnolia State is home to James Beard award-winning chefs and noted national food writers.

With so many dining options in Mississippi, we turned to golfers who have visited and enjoyed our delicious cuisine and nightly entertainment to share their favorites. Their choices are listed within each region in the Golfers' Picks section.

Food and entertainment are a big part of the draw to Mississippi. Although visitors may initially come for the great golf, they come back for the taste of our Southern cuisine, the fun of our world-class gaming and the intrigue of our deep, musical roots – and to play another round.

GOLF MISSISSIPPI

THE HILLS REGION

MALLARD POINTE AT JOHN W. KYLE STATE PARK, SARDIS

HILLS REGION

The foothills of the Appalachians reach into the northeast corner of Mississippi, creating the highest elevations in the state in the Hills Region. The rolling countryside makes for challenging courses. The beautiful vistas provide a scenic backdrop, making the golf courses in the region as unique as the topography. The area also is singular in its contribution to the explosive growth of rock 'n' roll as a musical genre, as the birthplace of Mississippi's most famous musical legend, Elvis Presley.

NORTH CREEK GOLF CLUB, SOUTHAVEN

In the northwest corner of Mississippi, DeSoto County boasts four championship golf courses. Packaged with local hotels, the courses create an affordable golf vacation with lots of variety. The city of Olive Branch is home to three of these courses, beginning with Cherokee Valley. The course features wide fairways and large Champion Bermuda greens, while 11 lakes and 78 bunkers provide the intimidation factor. Timber Truss Golf Course, located nearby, also features friendly, open fairways and oversized Champion Bermuda greens, but strategically placed mounds and water make for a very challenging tract. Wedgewood Golf Club is an 18-hole championship layout situated on rolling, scenic terrain and featuring demanding water hazards on 10 holes.

Rounding out the DeSoto County golf selections is North Creek Golf Club in Southaven. Grassy mounds, large, undulating greens and strategic dogleg fairways create a real test. The most unique feature of the course is the signature double green for holes 13 and 15, with a cart path tunnel running underneath.

A short distance southeast of DeSoto County is the challenging Kirkwood National Golf Club. This scenic course was named one of Golf Digest's top new courses when it opened and has continued to get great reviews. The course displays dramatic changes in elevation and wooded valleys, with numerous creeks and lakes running throughout. Lush Bermuda fairways and roughs line each wooded hole, and gorgeous Champion Bermuda greens await your approach. Fully furnished cottages, with living areas and up to four bedrooms, are available at Kirkwood, offering convenient lodging right on the golf course.

Located in scenic John W. Kyle State Park in Sardis, just off Interstate 55, is Mallard Pointe. Designed by renowned architect Bob Cupp, the challenging course features elevated tee shots and narrow fairways. Pinpoint precision is required to reach many of the well-protected greens. Golf packages are available in golf villas located at the course.

The Dogwoods Golf Course at Hugh White State Park also is located just off Interstate 55 in Grenada. When the course opened, the Dogwoods was ranked the fifth "best new affordable course" in the country by Golf Digest. The signature hole here is the par-5, 9th hole. Perched high above the fairway with an incredible view of Grenada Lake, the tee shot is as beautiful as it is intimidating. Cabins at the park, plus area hotels, make Grenada a perfect place to stay and play.

HILLS REGION

The Ole Miss Golf Course in Oxford has an exciting 7,000-yard layout and features state-of-the-art practice facilities. The new fairway bunkers and greens make this already challenging course into a great modern course for golfers of all skill levels to enjoy.

The north Mississippi area boasts some of the state's most scenic and challenging layouts. Plus, you can satisfy your appetite with delicious barbecue at Coleman's in Hernando, meat-and-three meals at Orleans Bistro in Grenada or the state's best fried catfish at Taylor Grocery near Oxford. And don't forget a cold, delicious glass of sweet tea.

The Hills Region is a great value destination for groups. The moderate climate, many top-quality golf courses and close proximity to the Midwest make it one of Mississippi's most popular destinations.

DELTA REGION

RIVER BEND LINKS, TUNICA RESORTS

Home to verdant green fairways and arguably the best sunrise and sunset views in the state, the Mississippi Delta is known worldwide as the birthplace of the blues. Although most of the golf is centered around Tunica, just south of the gaming resort destination you'll find the world's blues mecca. Clarksdale is home to the historic Delta Blues Museum, the Morgan Freeman-owned Ground Zero Blues Club and numerous Mississippi Blues Trail markers. To the south in Cleveland, the new state-of-the-art GRAMMY Museum® Mississippi has opened to showcase the accolades received by musical Mississippians.

The glitz and glamour of Tunica's gaming scene has given a new generation of music lovers another reason to visit. Home to six casinos, Tunica offers many musical and gaming venues, including more than 300 table games and more than 12,000 slots. The culinary options are just as diverse, with offerings of barbecue, buffets, diners and steakhouses.

Two truly top-notch golf courses in Tunica add yet another reason to pack your bags and head to the Mississippi Delta. These include River Bend Links, which features a dunes-laden, challenging layout, and Tunica National, a Mark McCumber design featuring rolling terrain, wide fairways, generous greens and unspoiled natural surroundings. Tunica's home course is rated No. 1 in the state by golfers from around the world who have played it and submitted reviews on GolfAdvisor.com.

The Delta Region is full of laid-back juke joints, exciting casino gaming, high energy entertainment, championship golf and unmatched Southern hospitality, all at a great value and an easy drive from Southern and Midwestern states.

QUAIL HOLLOW AT PERCY QUIN STATE PARK, McCOMB

CAPITAL/RIVER REGION

Mississippi's Capital/River Region consists of the state's capital city of Jackson and historic river towns such as Natchez and Vicksburg. Golf layouts range from wide-open flatlands to tight, water-lined fairways. The region's musical legacy is as diverse as its golf, with blues, rock 'n' roll and R&B flourishing in these areas.

Jackson played an important role in the development of Mississippi's musical contributions. Record companies such as Malaco pioneered the city's famous blues and soul sounds stretching back to the 1960s. The metro area plays host to some of the top players on the PGA TOUR each fall at the Sanderson Farms Championship, played at The Country Club of Jackson.

new 200 room on-site hotel and conference center. Mississippi's own Nathan Crace is the course architect and owner of the course near the Jackson-Medgar Wiley Evers International Airport.

Rolling terrain, undulating greens and breathtaking scenery are found at the recently renovated Quail Hollow, located in Percy Quin State Park, an hour south of Jackson in McComb. Quail Hollow was designed by well-known architect Arthur Hills. Golf villas providing modern amenities are conveniently located at the state park to create stay-and-play packages.

Natchez is home to two exciting courses. Beau Pré Country Club is situated on the banks of Second Creek and features a 90-foot clay bluff and rolling terrain. Natchez Golf Club at Duncan Park is a traditional-style course built in 1916 near the historic downtown, where antebellum homes survived the Civil War. This river town is home to an exciting casino, many bed and breakfasts in sprawling mansions, riverfront hotels and a variety of dining and nightlife.

The other historic river town in the region, Vicksburg, is also home to two unique golf courses. The Vicksburg Country Club was established in 1929 and has amazing elevational changes for this part of the state. Clear Creek was also designed by Nathan Crace and is a traditional parkland layout. This quaint town is home to many antebellum mansions and the Vicksburg National Military Park and Cemetery. It also boasts four casinos, three with on-site hotels, plus bed and breakfasts and other local hotels. The dining options range from southern fare to fine dining and everything in between.

The Capital/River Region is a unique blend of modern amenities and historic attractions, and the variety of golf courses fit that description just as well.

GOLF MISSISSIPPI

THE PINES REGION

MOSSY OAK GOLF CLUB, WEST POINT

PINES REGION

THE REGION BOASTS SOME OF THE HIGHEST RATED COURSES IN MISSISSIPPI AND IS HOME TO UNIQUE RESORT EXPERIENCES.

Mississippi's Pines Region blends rolling countryside, towering forests and trickling streams. Visitors to the region will find many museums to explore and historic landmarks to visit. For dining delights, choices range from fine dining and casino buffets to old-fashioned drive-ins and pub fare. The award-winning golf keeps visitors coming back to the fairways.

Old Waverly Golf Club in West Point combines the essence of the Scottish Highlands with a graceful Southern setting. Designed by Bob Cupp and Jerry Pate, Old Waverly was built on gently rolling terrain. The course is highlighted by the signature 18th hole, a 445-yard par-4 dogleg left with water along the left side and it's ranked No. 3 "best in the state" by both Golf Digest and Golfweek.

Gil Hanse, who designed the 2016 Olympic Golf Course in Rio de Janeiro, designed Old Waverly's sister course, Mossy Oak. Hanse's signature minimalist design follows the natural lay of the land. The course is dotted with mature oak trees along open fairways and slight elevation changes. The greens are incredibly pristine for such a young course. Upon opening, the course was named the third "best new course" in the country by Golf Digest and is currently second "best in state" by Golfweek.

Mossy Oak is located across the street from Old Waverly. With some shared ownership, both courses partner to increase golf excursions to the eastern side of the state. They each feature on-site golf cottages for custom stay-and-play packages.

Further south in Choctaw is Dancing Rabbit. The two courses at Dancing Rabbit, The Azaleas and The Oaks, along with the two casinos, several restaurants, three hotels and unique clubhouse lodging at Pearl River Resort, were built on the ancestral lands of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians. Each of the 36 holes at Dancing Rabbit bears the distinctive touch of course architects Tom Fazio and Jerry Pate. Both courses receive abundant praise. The Azaleas is currently ranked 33rd on GOLF® magazine's "top 100 courses you can play" list and both courses are in the top ten "best in state" by both Golfweek and Golf Digest.

Along with boasting some of the most exciting and challenging golf courses in Mississippi, the Pines Region offers many sightseeing opportunities, big city entertainment and an unparalleled casino resort.

GOLF MISSISSIPPI

THE COASTAL REGION

THE PRESERVE GOLF CLUB, BILOXI

COASTAL REGION

Coastal Mississippi has been a golfing destination for more than 100 years, and is home to one of the 20 oldest golf courses in the U.S. Great Southern Golf Club was designed by famed architect Donald Ross and opened in 1908. Golfing legends such as Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen, Babe Zaharias and Sam Snead, plus President Woodrow Wilson, have played at the course overlooking the Gulf of Mexico.

The Coastal Region has an attractive mix of award-winning golf courses, lively gaming resorts, exciting musical entertainment, one-of-a-kind restaurants, intriguing history and stunning scenery. The historic districts of Hattiesburg and Laurel showcase charming Victorian and turn-of-the-century mansions.

The area beckons amateur golfers with abundant and diverse course offerings, meeting the needs of groups of all sizes, budgets and preferences. Professional golfers also venture to Mississippi's coast to play in the Rapiscan Systems Classic, a Champions Tour event held each spring at Fallen Oak. Additionally, golfers experience the handiwork of some of the world's best course designers on Mississippi's coast.

Tom Fazio's contribution is Fallen Oak Golf Club. Built by MGM-Mirage as an amenity solely for guests of Biloxi's Beau Rivage Resort & Casino, the course features dramatic bunkers and inviting greens, offering surprising changes in elevation for a coastal course. The course is ranked No. 1 in the state by Golf Digest and Golfweek; lands at No. 30 on GOLF® magazine's "top 100 courses you can play;" plus, it's the second-best casino course in the country and No. 20 on the list of top 200 resort courses, both by Golfweek.

Jerry Pate's only coastal design in Mississippi is The Preserve, the home course of Palace Casino Resort. This course has been granted membership into the prestigious Audubon International Signature Program and is ranked fourth by Golfweek and ninth by Golf Digest in their respective "best in state" lists.

SHELL LANDING GOLF CLUB, GAUTIER

The name dropping continues at The Bridges Golf Club at Hollywood Casino in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi's only Arnold Palmer Signature golf course. Grand Bear is located north of Gulfport, designed by Jack Nicklaus for Harrah's Casino. It's ranked in the Top 10 of Mississippi courses, according to Golf Digest and Golfweek and is the top-rated course on the coast according to GolfAdvisor.com

Davis Love III contributed Shell Landing to the Mississippi "Golf Coast" selections. Located east of Biloxi, it was named one of the "best new upscale course" in America by Golf Digest upon opening. The course is currently listed as seventh "best in the state" according to Golf Digest and eighth by Golfweek.

On the western part of the coastline, Diamondhead Country Club features two distinct courses, the Pines and the Cardinal. The scenic beauty and Southern hospitality found at both courses make the demanding layouts a pleasure to play. In Pass Christian, The Oaks Golf Club was built by Landmark National of PGA West and Kiawah fame. Strategic bunkering and demanding greens highlight the layout. A circuitous routing creates a challenging yet serene experience.

Built on rolling terrain, Windance Country Club, located north of its sister casino, Island View in Gulfport, is a true gem on the Mississippi coast, named one of the state's Top 10 golf courses by Golfweek.

There are two historic courses in the region. Gulfport's Great Southern Golf Club and Ocean Spring's Gulf Hills Resort have both played an integral part of the golfing landscape on the coast since 1908 and 1927, respectively. The adjacent Gulf Hills Hotel has hosted the likes of Elvis Presley and Al Capone.

No visit to the Mississippi Gulf Coast is complete without a trip to Mary Mahoney's in Biloxi for gumbo or the petite soft-shell crab appetizer. Trapani's Eatery, a Bay St. Louis mainstay for more than 20 years, offers fresh Gulf seafood and stunning views of the beach.

An hour north of the Mississippi coastline is the college town of Hattiesburg. A foodie town of late, Hattiesburg is known for versatile cuisine thanks to restaurant owner and chef Robert St. John. He's become well-known for his creative expressions, both in the kitchen and through the written word. For golfers visiting the area, Timberberton Golf Club is a must play.

With moderate annual temperatures, a variety of lodging options, world-class gaming, historical attractions, exciting restaurants and musical outlets to enliven the senses, the region is unlike any other golf destination in the country. With non-stop air service from many cities into the Gulfport/Biloxi International Airport, Coastal Mississippi is more accessible than ever.
